

Action Plan for Oecusse District

Total PNTL officers= 119

18 May 2009

What			Who		How	Where	Comments
Shortcoming	Observations	Suggestions	Responsible	Beneficiaries
1. Inadequate communication equipment	Radio communications equipment is insufficient. Officers tend to rely on their personal mobilephones as coverage is a concern	- To equip them with radio communication and telephones/mobile phones	PNTL, Logistics Department	All PNTL officers at District	Enhance coverage of radio communications equipment	District HQ
2. Availability of adequate means of transportation	Transportation in sub districts is in short supply and officers use their personal motorbikes to attend crime scenes.	Prioritise allocation of newly acquired vehicles to enhance operational readiness	PNTL, Logistics Department	All PNTL officers at District	Ensure that requirements are incorporated into overall Logistics requirements and catered for procurement	District HQ

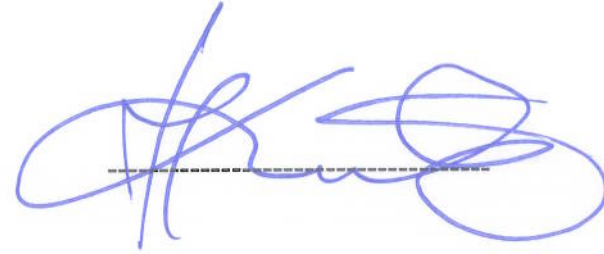

What			Who		How	Where	Comments
Shortcoming	Observations	Suggestions	Responsible	Beneficiaries
3. Investigational tools including digital cameras, flashlights, forensic bags, measuring tapes	PNTL members have received training but do not have access the investigational equipment	Prioritise allocation of one set (digital camera, forensic bags, flashlight, measuring tape) for district HQ and each sub-district.	PNTL, Logistics Department	All PNTL officers at District	PNTL Logistics Department to cater such equipment to the Districts	District HQ
4. Task force is under utilized	Operations Planning in terms of engaging the Task Force to enhance law and security of the district can be improved upon	Apart from enhancing operations planning to further engage the Task Force, consider re-deploying them to engage in community policing efforts by reviewing the manpower requirements of the various sections/workload	District Commander in consultation with PNTL HQ	All PNTL officers at District and general public	District managment team should review and recommend changes	District HQ

PNTL General Commander

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a vertical line that curves into a loop at the bottom, positioned over a horizontal dashed line.

UNPOL Police Commissioner

A handwritten signature in blue ink, featuring several large, overlapping loops and a vertical line, positioned over a horizontal dashed line.